

“Our company was founded in 1945 when L.D. Schreiber, a butter and egg businessman from Chicago, partnered with Merlin G. Bush and Daniel David Nusbaum to form the L.D. Schreiber Cheese Company in Green Bay, Wisconsin. From day one, the company followed the “16 ounces to the pound” philosophy. One pound of cheese would weigh just that – one pound. Not more. Not less. Back in 1945, that wasn’t always the case with other companies, but being honest and trustworthy was important to our founders. They were right, and today we still use “16 ounces to the pound” as shorthand for two cornerstones of our character: unquestionable integrity and an ongoing commitment to quality. While we’ve grown in size and capabilities in the past seven decades, our values are the same, and we don’t intend to change.”

Cheese Storage Tips

- ✚ When storing and handling, remember the three C's: Clean, Cold, Covered
- ✚ Store cheese away from other aromatic foods because it absorbs flavors.
- ✚ Refrigerate cheese between 35° - 38°F.
- ✚ Store in clean, airtight containers or wrap tightly in barrier plastic wrap.
- ✚ Freezing is detrimental to cheese quality and generally not recommended.
- ✚ It is best to cut cheese while it is still chilled. This helps keep cut lines clean and makes it easier to handle.
- ✚ The American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry recommends cheese as a healthy snack for children's teeth.

Try our imported specialty cheeses from Atalanta!

Did you know.....?

- ❖ "She sells seashells by the seashore" was written about a female paleontologist from the 1800's. She actually sold dinosaur bones and fossilized shells.
- ❖ Paleontologists spend a surprising amount of time contemplating dino sex. They have all kinds of theories as to how it went down, but unfortunately, there's no actual flesh to, well, flesh out the details.
- ❖ It requires seven to eight trees to provide enough oxygen for just one person per year.
- ❖ The Lion King was originally called "King of the Jungle" before they realized that lions don't actually live in jungles.
- ❖ Every day in the U.S., more than 100,000 people get a speeding ticket.
