America Celebrates July As National Hot Dog Month

Whether one enjoys a frankfurter, frank, wiener, weenie, coney, red hot or hot dog, July is a month for celebration. This month marks National Hot Dog Month, 31 days that celebrate one of America's most iconic foods.

Hot dogs are part of American culture, summer celebrations, travel and grilling traditions. They are synonymous with the nation's independence as Americans were expected to eat 150 million hot dogs on July 4 alone.
