

Quality Products - Outstanding Service

Business during the pandemic and the shutdowns has been challenging both to customers and suppliers alike. Suppliers have had issues in providing the ordered products and customers have had to make do or find replacements. Some of our manufacturers are beginning to rally and are now able to fill their orders. These items have been out of stock or limited in supply for quite some time. We're happy to say they are now available, with many others following soon. Please let purchasing know if you add any high-volume customers so they can adjust the par levels.
